CODE

different parts of news from arabic and european online news paper printed on an art agenda from the year 2003

the agenda include 364 art works from different european artist where behind the printed works an essay about the artist whom done the work the contrast between the printed art works and their essays and the actual news which i used to read inspire me to select part of them and print it on each day of the artist agenda the work CODE is an questioning behind the different fragmentation of history, time and art
